
Trajectories from Prior Tasks
Success/Failure Attribution
Experience Filter
Turn 0
User: Give me a quote to help me get up early tomorrow.
Assistant:
Function calling #tool1
Input: {content: "get up"}
Response: "Get up" means …
Answer: "Get up" means …
Turn 1
User: I would like to quote a famous saying.
Assistant:
Function calling #tool2
Input: …
Response: …
Answer: The early bird catches the worm.
#tool1
#tool1
Quality of Context, Input and Response
scores: 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
explanation: After inputting the keyword (string format) to be queried, this tool successfully returned the reference sentences required for this task.
Quality of Context, Input and Response
scores: 0 0 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
explanation: The tool is of no help in completing the task and should not be invoked in this context, even though it was successfully invoked.
Quality of Context, Input and Response
scores: 1 1 1 1 1 1 0 0 0 0
explanation: The tool is invoked at an appropriate time and in the correct format; however, due to the tool's own availability, it return an error response.
remove unhelpful experiences
outdated experience
normal experience
repeated experience
bad experience
one-shot tool
few-shot tool
many-shot tool
select helpful experiences
Experience Summary
qualitative analysis
quantitative analysis
1. Experience Acquisition
2. Experience Distillation
ExpG
3. Experience Reuse
Different Usage Strategy
dynamic vs stable prompt schema
How should I invoke this tool?
Well, according to the guidance of the tool, I should...
Guidance of #tool1
· Core Function: …
· Success Patterns: …
· Common Issues: …
· Best Practices: …
Average rate | score | time | token cost
66% | 8.0 | 6s | 14